The college supports opportunities for students to expand academic horizons from global education experiences. Whether domestic or international, global experiences can have a profound impact on a student’s future.

We have more than 20 faculty-developed international experiences to countries including Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, England, Germany, Italy, Ireland, Mexico, Spain, Southern Africa, Tanzania and Taiwan.

In 2013-2014, 909 teaching certificates were issued through the college. CEHD is ranked #1 among colleges and universities in Texas for producing the largest number of teachers in the high-need fields of math and science and are among the top five in special education.
In 2014, principal investigators (PIs) and Co-PIs in the college received nearly $18 million in external funding including grant awards from the National Institutes of Health, The National Science Foundation and the U.S. Department of Education.
