Guidelines for the Dean's Development Council Outstanding New Faculty and Extraordinary Service Awards

Dean's Development Council - Outstanding New Faculty Award:

Open to all new faculty members who have been employed in the college for a period of three years or less prior to the nomination deadline (if you have any questions regarding a specific nominee's eligibility, please contact Wendy Kreider at wkreider@tamu.edu or 845-6411). Nominees must show outstanding contributions in the areas of teaching, research and service. Significant professional contributions to College of Education and Human Development (CEHD) programs and departmental activities should also be evident.

Dean's Development Council - Extraordinary Service Award:

Open to all College of Education and Human Development (CEHD) faculty members. Nominees must demonstrate an extreme commitment and must have gone "above and beyond" their expected responsibilities in serving their constituents, community, colleagues and students. This award will be given only when the selection committee deems that a nominee has truly exceeded the expected level of service.

Award Nomination Packets

Nominations can be submitted by faculty, staff or students in the CEHD. Nomination packets may not exceed eight pages, they must be submitted in hard copy and should include: a nomination form, a vita, a nomination letter and one support letter (please note, letters may not exceed two pages).

Nomination Packets are due to Wendy Kreider, 802F Harrington Tower / Mail Stop: 4222 by Monday, August 1, 2016. Only complete nomination packets will be forwarded to the selection committee for consideration.

Each award winner will receive a $1,000 check and a certificate at the College Awards Celebration to be held on Friday, October 28, 2016 at the Hilton College Station & Conference Center.
