The College of Education and Human Development (CEHD) annually recognizes former students who have distinguished themselves in their field. Nominations are now being accepted for the 2024 Outstanding Alumni and Early Career Awards through Friday, September 6, 2024. The nomination packet should include this nomination form, the nomination letter (two-page limit), and two letters of support (two-page limit per letter). Please email your nomination packets to the contact below.

Individuals may be nominated for the Early Career Alumni Award – a graduate who has earned his/her degree within the past three to seven years and meets the award criteria listed. Those who are awarded the Early Career Alumni Award are eligible to receive the Outstanding Alumni Award once they have completed seven years post-graduation from the CEHD. Nominees may not be a previous recipient of the Outstanding Alumni Award or Early Career Alumni Award for a second time.

The 2024 Outstanding Alumni and Early Career Alumni awards will be presented at a gala on Friday, November 8, 2024, at The George (180 Century Court | College Station, Texas).
